1. Ilgaz is preparing a poster for the class project 'Jobs in My Family'. Read his text and do the activities below.

> Jobs in My Family — by Ilgaz
>
> My aunt Nazlı is a pharmacist. She works at a small pharmacy opposite the city clinic. She prepares medicines for her customers. Her shop opens at half past eight, so she leaves home at eight.
>
> My uncle Okan is an architect at an architecture firm in the city centre. He designs schools and libraries on his computer. Twice a week, he also visits building sites and checks the work there.
>
> My cousin Sena is a photographer. She has her own photography studio near the old harbour. She shoots wedding and family photos. She works on Saturdays and Sundays because most weddings take place at weekends.
> My mother, Gül, is a scientist. She works in a science lab at a university. She researches plants that grow in very dry places. She often stays at the lab until late because her experiments take a long time.

1.1. Complete the table according to the text. Write short phrases. (6x2=12 pts)

Who	Job	Workplace	One work activity
Nazlı	pharmacist	(a)	(b)
Okan	(c)	an architecture firm	designs schools and libraries
Sena	photographer	(d)	shoots wedding and family photos
Gül	(e)	a science lab at a university	(f)

1.2. Answer the questions. Short phrases are enough. (2x2=4 pts)

a. Why does Sena work at weekends?

2. Two students wrote short articles for their class online magazine about a busy day at home. Read the articles and answer the questions below.

> Article 1 — Mira
>
> I live in a cottage in a small village near a forest. It has a sitting room, a kitchen and two small bedrooms. Today is my grandma's seventieth birthday, and we are having a big dinner tonight. Right now, my uncle Tolga is in the garage. He is looking for extra chairs for the guests. My mum is in the sitting room; she is putting new cushions on the sofa. My little brother, Bora, is in the hall. He is hanging balloons on the walls.
>
> Article 2 — Kuzey
> My family lives in a bungalow on the edge of the town. All the rooms are on one floor, so my grandad can move around easily. Today is New Year's Day, and our neighbours are visiting us in the afternoon. At the moment, my sister Yaren is in the bathroom. She is cleaning the mirror and the basin. My grandad is on the terrace. He is watering the flowers in the pots. My dad is in the kitchen, and he is taking a tray of pastries out of the oven.

2.1. Write the type of house each student lives in. (2x1=2 pts)

a. Mira: _____

b. Kuzey: _____

2.2. Write the special day in each article. (2x1=2 pts)

a. Mira's article: _____

b. Kuzey's article: _____

2.3. Use the articles to fill in the six empty cells of the table. (6x2=12 pts)

Who	Where (room / area)	Current action

3. Read the guide from a school website and answer the questions below.

> Harbourview High School — A Guide for New Families
>
> (1) Harbourview High School is an upper secondary school in a small coastal town in New Zealand. It is not a private school, so families do not pay for lessons. About 900 students study here in four year groups. Students start at the age of fourteen and graduate at eighteen.
>
> (2) The school has some useful places for students. In the food technology room, students learn to cook healthy meals. There are two tennis courts behind the main building and a quiet prayer room next to the library. The canteen serves hot lunches every day.
>
> (3) Lessons are only one part of school life here. After 3 p.m., students can choose from many extracurricular activities. The volunteering club cleans the beach once a month, and the art club paints pictures for the town hall. Rugby is the most popular sport, and the school team plays every Saturday.
> (4) Many students feel anxious in the weeks before their final exams. For this reason, the school organises a 'Calm Week' every November. During this week, there is no homework, and the school counsellor runs short relaxation sessions. Students say the week helps them sleep better.

3.1. Match the headings (A–E) with the paragraphs (1–4). Write the correct letter in the table. There is one extra heading. (4x2=8 pts)

A. After-school clubs and sports
