9. Sınıf İngilizce · 1. Dönem 1. Ortak Yazılı (Senaryo 1)

1. A student wrote this post for the school blog after a special week at school. Read the post and do the tasks below.

> Green Week at Our School
>
> (1) Every spring, our school organises Green Week. It is the most exciting week of the year because every class joins at least one event. This year, Green Week was between 14 and 18 April, and the theme was "Our School, Our Garden".
>
> (2) On Monday, there was a sports day. The teams played basketball and volleyball in the schoolyard, and the 9-B team won the volleyball final. On Wednesday evening, the school band gave a concert in the hall. Mr Kaya, our music teacher, played the guitar with the students, and the parents sang with them.
>
> (3) On Thursday, all the students had to bring an empty plastic bottle to school. We made small flower pots from the bottles and planted seeds in them. Then we put the pots on the walls of the garden. The science club also collected the rubbish around the school and put it into recycling bins.
> (4) On Friday, the drama club performed a short play about the first years of the Republic. The actors wore old-style costumes, and the audience clapped for a long time. At the end of the week, the head teacher said, "You mustn't forget that this garden belongs to all of you. Please look after it."

4. Deniz wrote a message to the "Family Corner" page of a teen magazine. Read the message and the reply, and do the tasks below.

> Deniz (15) writes: I share a bedroom with my younger brother. He plays loud games on his computer while I am doing my homework. When I tell him to stop, we argue, and my mother gets angry with both of us. Our flat is small, so we can't have separate rooms. What can I do?
> Aunt Nalan replies: Dear Deniz, many families live in small flats, and brothers and sisters often argue about noise. First, talk to your brother calmly – not when you are angry. Make a simple timetable together: he can play his games after you finish your homework. Second, ask your parents for a pair of headphones for your brother. Finally, you can study in the kitchen or at the library when you need silence. A small home can be a happy home if everybody listens to each other.

4.1. Answer the questions according to the texts. Short answers are enough. (4x2=8 pts)

a. Who does Deniz share a bedroom with?

b. What does Deniz's brother do while Deniz is doing homework?

c. Why can't Deniz have a separate room?

d. Where can Deniz study when he needs silence?

3. Deniz should talk to his brother		c. because of the noise from the computer.
4. Headphones are a good idea		d. when he is calm.
		e. because he wants to move to a bigger house.

5. Four exchange students introduced themselves on the welcome board of Atlas High School. Read the cards and do the tasks below.

> Lucas: Hi! I'm Lucas, and I'm from Portugal. I'm Portuguese. I can speak Portuguese and a little English. Lisbon, the capital of my country, is on the coast, and tourists can ride the old yellow trams there. On 10 June, we celebrate Portugal Day with music in the streets.
>
> Hana: Hello, everyone! My name is Hana. I'm Japanese, and I come from Osaka, not from Tokyo, the capital. I can speak Japanese and English, but I can't speak Turkish yet. In Tokyo, visitors can walk in the gardens of the Imperial Palace and go up the Tokyo Skytree. My favourite celebration is Children's Day on 5 May; families fly carp flags.
>
> Mateo: Hi there! I'm Mateo from Argentina. My nationality is Argentinian, and my first language is Spanish. Buenos Aires, our capital, is famous for tango. Tourists can watch tango shows and visit the colourful houses of La Boca. On 25 May, we celebrate the May Revolution with a big parade.
>
> Amira: Hello! I'm Amira, and I'm Egyptian. I can speak Arabic, English and French. Cairo is the capital of Egypt. Visitors can see the Pyramids of Giza near the city and take a boat trip on the Nile. We celebrate Revolution Day on 23 July.

5.1. Read the cards quickly. What is the main purpose of the welcome board? Circle the correct option. (1x2=2 pts)

- A. to advertise a school trip to four countries
- B. to introduce new students and their countries
- C. to give the dates of the school holidays

Mateo	Argentina	(5)	(6)	25 May
Amira	(7)	Egyptian	Cairo	(8)

5.3. Read the cards carefully and answer the questions. Short answers are enough. (3x2=6 pts)

a. Which student can speak three languages?

b. Which student does not live in the capital of her country?

c. What can tourists do in Buenos Aires? Write two activities.

6. Sofia is a student from Italy. She wrote this e-mail to her new e-pal, Ali. Read the e-mail and write a reply.

> From: Sofia To: Ali Subject: Hello from Italy!
>
> Hi Ali,
>
> My name is Sofia, and I'm your new e-pal. I'm Italian, and I live in Milan. I can speak Italian and English, and I'm learning Turkish. The capital of Italy is Rome. Tourists can visit the Colosseum and throw a coin into the Trevi Fountain. Our national day is Republic Day on 2 June. There is a big parade in Rome on that day.
>
> Please write and tell me about you and your country.
>
> Best wishes, Sofia

Write a reply to Sofia (60–80 words). Use her e-mail as a model and include the following information:

- your name, your nationality and the languages you can speak;
- the capital of your country and one tourist attraction there;
- one activity tourists can do in your country;
- a national day in your country and its date.

Use a greeting (Hi / Dear ...) and a closing (Best wishes / See you ...). (22 pts)
